

Annmarie commenced dancing at a very early age in Classical Ballet and Tap dancing. She started Ballroom Dancing at 16 years of age, successfully obtaining all medals in Standard Ballroom, New Vogue and Latin American to Oscar Level.

Annmarie has danced professionally in Standard Ballroom and New Vogue style of dance and won the Australasian Modern Ballroom Championship in 1974. She was a finalist in Australian New Vogue in 1976, and in New Vogue and Standard in 1978.

She has been teaching since 1970 when she achieved qualifications for teaching Jazz Ballet with Dancesport Australia. Later she became a member of the Australian Dancing Academy, and DanceMasters Australia.

In-hold after floorshow with professional dance par Dancing with ex husband and professional dance partner Melbourne Town Hall early 1980s

Annmarie & student dancing Pro-Am Melbourne Town Hall late 1970s

Annmarie has been registered and qualified Adjudicator for Dancesport Australia (Modern Standard & New Vogue), and has adjudicated Medal examinations at studio level.

She has trained numerous competitors in ballroom dancing in Victoria and the ACT, including a number of first place competitors, along with many other high place contenders in open, junior, and recreation levels.

She has been also trained debutantes in Geelong for over 18 years.

David and Annmarie in a promotional Photo For the Geelong Advertiser for the opening of their Mayfair Studio in Moolap in 2000

Annmarie operated Beach Street Ballroom Dance Studio in Frankston for 14 years, which she operated with her first husband and dance partner.

This included four years training in theatre and musical comedy.

After moving to Geelong she opened Mayfair Ballroom Dancing Academy in Moolap with her second husband, originally her student, David Kelly.

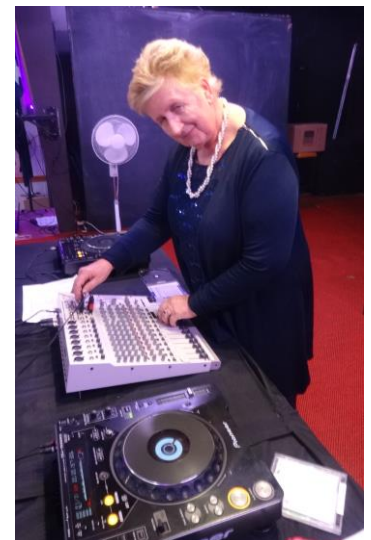

She has also instructed at Club Italia, Moolap, Christ Church, Geelong, and is currently teaching at the Geelong Ballroom.

Her coaching also included medal examinations for juniors, seniors, also Debutante Training and social Ballroom.

Annmarie continues to provide personal tuition for singles, couples, and small groups, of all age brackets.

She also provides recorded music and dance programs regularly at The Geelong Ballroom in Hamlyn Heights.

For further information please contact
Annmarie on 0408 448 752

Hosting music at the Ballroom 2022